LETTER TO THE EDITOR

It is a cold, wet, stormy day here in Connecticut. But I am inside the house and comfortable.

Exactly two months ago - on July 25th, it was such a day in Mattapoissett. The rain came down in buckets all of the day and part of the night. The wind blew a good 40 knots. I was wet and cold inside of my small sailboat at the Town Dock.

I may never visit Mattapoissett again, but I will always remember the numerous people who were concerned about me and went out of their way to make a miserable day more comfortable.

Unfortunately I neglected to make a record of their names. But I know that if you will publish this general "Thank You Note" in your paper it will reach them.

To me,, Mattapoissett is really special.

Yours truly, Robert C. Miller

TREWAX MODEL 625B

RINSEVAC MODEL RV17

A truly clean carpet is the name of the game for our customer. A machine that gives this customer satisfaction—and performs reliably with repeated rentals—that's the name of the game. That's where the Trewax "Up & Out" soil extraction machine excels. Compare for yourself. And you'll see why hardware, paint and rental dealers keep switching from "them" to "us".

1. System delivers 3½ quarts of water per minute.
2. 28 PSI with an average of 107 inches of water lift.
3. Large stair-climbing back wheels and fold-down handle for easy maneuverability.
4. Drain valve permits emptying of machine in easy-to-handle amounts.
5. Free-flowing vacuum system with every opening 1½" in diameter for faster, more powerful, more reliable operation.
6. All-metal wand covered with heat-insulating coating.
7. Horizontal handle to reduce fatigue.
8. Rugged, see-thru Trogamid in wand to monitor dirt flow.
9. Deep insulated water supply tank keeps water hot without the need for external heating, repair.
10. Super-reliable pump designed specially for soil extraction use.
11. Automatic shut-off to protect vacuum motor.
12. Five gallon solution tank.

1. System delivers 1 quart of water per minute.
2. 6 PSI with an average of 100 inches of water lift.
3. No stair-climbing wheels.
4. Lift-out container means that customer must carry entire load of dirty water each time.
5. Vacuum system uses 1¼" diameter with sharp bends that constrict flow.
6. Non-insulated wand.
7. No horizontal handle.
8. Plastic dome to monitor dirt flow subject to customer abuse which may result in cracking.
9. Heating element to keep water hot.
10. General purpose pump.
11. No automatic shut-off.
12. Three gallon solution tank.

Selectmen's Meeting

MATTAPOISETT INN IN LIMITED OPERATION

Richard Lagreze, owner of the Mattapoisett Inn, appeared in a detailed discussion with the Board of Selectmen regarding the future operation of the Water St. establishment. Building Inspection had confirmed that the historic building does not conform to the building code as now required by the State of Massachusetts. The most serious gap in the meeting of the code is in the area of fire exit in the event of such an emergency. Because of this danger, Selectmen ordered the building cleared of tenants on the second and third floors as of Sunday, October 2nd. Selectmen agreed to allow operation of the dining room and bar if the Board of Health approved. The Board of Selectmen also agreed to allow Mr. Lagreze's name to appear as manager while he appeals for transfer of license to the Massachusetts Alcohol Beverages Commission.

REPLY TO CELSO BRANCO

Selectmen replied to the letter sent by Celso Branco concerning the 2 A.M. closing for liquor establishments. The Selectmen noted that Branco had agreed that he had notice of the hearing on the subject and that he was given a fair hearing. They

The Posiviatas would much rather follow our red brick path.

Both Charlie and Beverly Posiviata say they like banking with us because of the many, many services we provide and the way we treat them.

Whether they bank inside, or outside at one of our drive-up windows, doesn't matter. The Posiviatas, like so many of our customers, would rather take a few minutes longer to drive to our place than bank at several others closer to home.

The way we see it — just like the Posiviatas of Mattapoisett — there are banks and there is our bank. ♡ said that the Board of Selectmen has a duty to act in the best interest of the whole town and its citizens, that they have conducted a proper hearing, made a decision and the decision will stand. The Selectmen stated that they have not denied or refused any public hearing due to King of the Road under General Law 138. The Selectmen pointed out that all of the subsequent discussions with Branco were not in the nature of a hearing but simply conferences on the subject.

FINAL REPORT OF BICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

Selectmen heard a final report from Selectman John DeCosta, chairman of the Bicentennial Committee, which has disbanded. Mr. DeCosta said that the balance of $1,169. will be turned over to the general fund.

HARBORMASTER COMMENDED

Selectmen received a letter from Mrs. Albert Caron of 14 Waterman Street in praise of Karl Collyer's efforts in retrieving a boat which broke loose from its mooring in the harbor.

NAME SUBMITTED

Fire Chief Paul Bradley sent a memo to the Board of Selectmen submitting the name of George Heath as Fire Department representative on the Public Safety Building Needs Committee.

SEWER PERMIT ISSUED

The Water Resources Commission has notified Selectmen that a permit for construction of 27,500 feet of sewer lines and a pumping station has been issued to Mattapoisett.

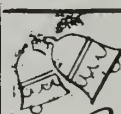

REQUESTS AUDIT WORK

A letter was received from C.P.A. Mervell T. Cronin requesting that his name be placed on the town's list for audit work and Selectmen indicated that this will be done.

EXHIBITION OF BATIK AND POTTERY

An exhibition of batik and pottery will open at the Marion Art Center this Friday with a Wine and Cheese Reception for members and their guests. Both artists own and operate their own galleries and are experts in their respective crafts.

Lucille Loder Wilhelm runs Sundial Batik in Cambridge as an outlet for her work. A former Peace Corps volunteer, Ms. Wilhelm was first introduced to the art of batik while working in West Africa. A strong fine arts background from Syracuse University, Boston State College and Mass. College of Art first led her to the teaching profession. Later she became more and more involved in batik and has been working exclusively in that craft since 1972.

Her work includes useful items like silk scarves, pillows, etc. as well as one-of-a-kind paintings, wall hangings and soft sculptures.

Letter to the Editor

"O Tempora, O Mores!"

It is indeed a sad commentary on our times that children and their parents are being used as pawns for a successful (??) strike settlement by union-organized teachers. In all this strife between teachers' associations and school committees - contract settlements vs. no-contract troubles and fines - teachers in jail - children on the street instead of in school - fringe benefit gains vs. no fringe benefits - teachers on strike - picket lines formed - all this as though our classrooms were really just educational assembly lines, ad infinitum, there comes to mind a little poem which was prevalent and oft-quoted in the early part of our century when I began my teaching career.

I hope, Mr. Editor, that you will print this little poem, for it may be that many of today's teachers - especially the younger ones - have never heard of it. It seems to me to epitomize the spirit of the teacher who truly loves his profession. It deals with Mark Hopkins, a great teacher, president of Williams College (1836-1872), and a farm boy. I know not who wrote

ORGAN RECITAL AT UNITARIAN CHURCH

Brian Jones, distinguished New England organist, will give a recital at the First Unitarian Church in New Bedford on Wednesday evening, October 19, at 7:30 P.M. Tickets will be available at the door.

Director of music at the Noble and Greenough School in Dedham and at the Wellesley Congregational Church, Mr. Jones is also conductor of the Dedham Choral Society. His recitals have been received by consistently enthusiastic audiences and music critics throughout New England. Mr. Jones is noted for promoting restorations of historical pipe organs and is especially skilled at individualizing his programs for each instrument. The 1967 D. A. Flentrop organ at the First Unitarian Church, like that at the Busch-Reisinger Museum in Cambridge, has tracker action and a unique specification.

Mr. Jones' previous recitals here have won him standing ovations. The public is invited to hear this unusually talented musician. He will play works of Buxtehude, Bach, of a National Educational Association (NEA) Institute. Her two-week study group, sponsored jointly by San Jose State College and the University of Pittsburgh, studied education in rural Somerset County in southwestern England.

"A lot of their problems are similar to ours," reflected Mrs. Briggs. The schools have large expenditures for transportation to the detriment of better curriculum funding. They also have more work to do on career education problems; many students finish school and have no employment because of lack of job opportunities in the immediate area. Guidance departments in the rural areas she visited are primarily concerned with student orientation to different jobs, while the Headmasters handle academic and personal counseling.

Since the English school year lasts until the end of July, Mrs. Briggs was able to visit numerous schools while they were still in session. She was greatly impressed with the emphasis on drama at all levels. "Kindergarten teachers would ask the children to 'tell without words what you did'" explained Mrs. Briggs. "In addition, two or three times a week teachers have the primary children listen to a BBC educational program and move to the rhythm of the music."

Adult education was another area which Mrs.

do not have basic educational skills, and the children of all ages miss school to follow the crops. The teachers work with all ages and develop long-lasting relationships with these interesting people.

Mrs. Briggs' study group, which was housed in Dillington College, the Somerset County Center for the Arts and Continuing Education, was tutored by Mr. Jim Taylor, the county education commissioner who this year received a Jubilee medal from the Queen for his outstanding work in education. In addition to the school visit, Mr. Taylor, a former teacher of English Literature, was able to give Mrs. Briggs' group exceptional extracurricular tours during the evenings and weekends. Her group took trips to Bristol, Sherborne, Camelot, Glastonbury and Wells. Enroute to different schools, Mr. Taylor stopped at places of great interest to lovers of English Literature-places such as T.S. Eliot's burial place, Coleridge's home, and cathedral libraries; they lunched one day at the Ship in Exeter, the pub where Drake and Raleigh planned their Spanish Armada strategy, and had dinner one evening in Raleigh's country home.

"We saw a good and representative cross section of British schools," said Mrs. Briggs

All the benefits with Mobil 1

While the competition offers some benefits, over conventional motor oils, only Mobil 1 offers all these compared to conventional motor oils:

- Improved gas mileage
- 15,000 mile (or one year) drain interval
- Faster sub-zero starts
- Hot weather performance
- Keeps engines cleaner
- Better engine protection

Mobil 1-synthetic makes the difference. Competitive products don't even claim to match Mobil 1's performance in all categories. The oil that does it all—Mobil 1.

Youth Hockey

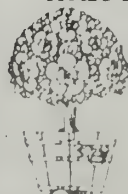

Ice time money is now overdue for the next 2 months. Please mail your check to Mrs. Sylvia Ouimet, North Street, Mattapoisett, MA. 02739. All of the money has to be in by October 15th or the skaters will not be allowed on the ice. This is a new concept devised by RYHA to make it easier for the coaches, but if it is not adhered to then we will go back to payments every month.

The dance to benefit RYHA will now be held on Friday, November 18. RYHA felt that with the many conflicts on November 5 it was unfair to the organizations with many of them members of RYHA to try and compete. With this thought in mind, everyone can attend the "Gong Show" and the affair in Marion with the hopes that everyone will attend the RYHA dance on November 18, from 8 to 12 midnight. The band is the "Trade-winds" with door prizes, raffles, refreshments and a lot of fun to be had.

The next coaches and board of directors' meeting is October 6 at Dan Lee's. At the request of RYHA the official season will start on Saturday, November 5. This gives all of the skaters in Suburban Youth Hockey more of a chance to practice and develop their skating skills.

The SYHA Clinic will start on Sunday, November 6, from 12 noon to 2 P.M.

Registration for Rochester Youth Hockey is still being held on Saturdays from 6 A.M. to 12 Noon.

In an exhibition game played in the Squirt Division the Rochester Cubs shut out Free-town-Lakeville 4 to 0. Hitting the net were Peter Faria, Mike Costa, Mike Walega and Paul Lambalot. In goal were Tom Jackivicz and Mike Roszkiewica to start another winning season for Rochester Youth Hockey.

The original FORAM was a group of parents interested in supporting the arts, especially music, at Old Rochester Regional Junior and Senior High Schools. In 1974 a new organization of FORAM took up the banner to organize parents, teachers and citizens devoted to promoting an intensive exposure to and support for the arts; namely graphic arts, music, drama and dance at ORR Junior and Senior High Schools.

Over the last 3 years field trips to theater, dance and music productions had been arranged and supported by FORAM, individual students received financial aid through

Gateway Players

"THE ODD COUPLE" A HOWLING HIT

A REVIEW: Edith Byrnes

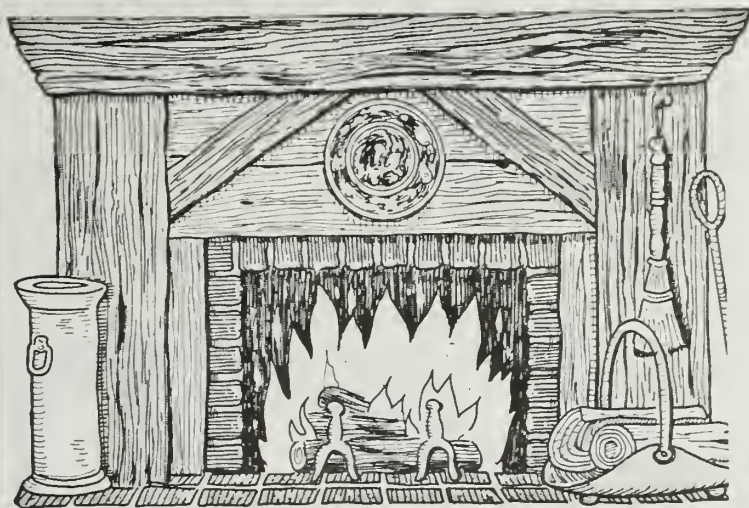

"The Odd Couple" is the Gateway Players funniest show since "Where's Charley?". The cast interprets Neil Simon's wit for the slapstick that it is; the director's sense of pacing is set for lightening fast laughter; all in all reminiscent of those 30's screwball comedies.

Everyone knows, thanks to T.V., of the Felix Ungar-Oscar Madison affair. As a theater piece, Simon's style established him as a major writer of comedy for the American stage; he captures the nothingness of being vulgar and makes it hilarious.

Daniel P. "Biff" O'Connell, Jr. (Wareham Selectman) makes Oscar all his own, steam rolling about with vast appeal. And as the fastidious Felix, Paul Hebert emerges as a very droll and intelligent comic performer. Supporting card players Tom (Murray) Gillmore, Kenneth King, Peter Mitchell and Larry (Speed) Bennett are a bundle of fun; and as the ever flighty Pigeon sisters Jan Boynton and Kathy Donlan earned exit applause. Their segment alone is worth admission.

Director George W. Hayden, usually associated with heavier theater, has shown another side of his abilities and to his audience's delight. Set and costumes by Ruth were strikingly professional. If you've never seen "The Odd Couple" live, here's a chance right in your own backyard to treat the family, and tickle you right down to the funny bones. Perform-

HILLER REGATTA

The annual sailboat race of five Hiller cousins drew sizeable audience of friends and relatives at the Barstow Wharf on Sunday, September 18. A steady west wind, at times gusty, helped make the Beverly Dinghies put on an exciting show. Starter and timekeeper was Frank Martocci. After a trial run on a triangular course of a mile around the harbor, 3 races were run. Best time was 6'54" by Eldredge Hiller who was first in two races with Buzz Hiller winning one race and Emerson Hiller a close second in the third race.

Ira Hiller II sailed his International 110, aided by crew member Peggy Hiller showing the way to his junior relatives across the finish line.

The next Hiller Regatta will be held in September 1978.

O.R.R. Sports

Last week the Cross Country team beat Barnstable 25-32 and lost to New Bedford Voke and Dartmouth 17-43 and 24-35. Top finishers against New Bedford Voke were Jim Wingate, 4; Larry Seidl, 7; and Chuck Wordell, 9. In the Barnstable meet it was Jim Wingate, 2; Chuck Wordell, 3; Larry Seidl, 5; Steve Magee, 7; Criag DeLuca, 8; and Mike Fay, 9. The puts the team 3-2 overall. Coach Jack Eddy is pleased with the team this year and also by the way they are adjusting to Division 1.

The Soccer team last week was dealt two 2-1 losses by Stang and Somerset. Scoring for the Bulldogs against Stang was Matt Dawson, and against Somerset it was Andy Chase. This puts the Soccer team 2-2-1 overall and 1-2 in the league.

The Football team was dealt their first loss in two years by losing to East Bridgewater 18-0. Although the score was high the Bulldog defense was good, holding the much larger East Bridgewater team to 18 points. Good defensive plays were made by Pat Moran, Tom

AUDIO-VANCE STUDY MATE AT TOBEY

If you happen to visit a new mother in Tobey's maternity section, you may see her absorbed in watching pictures flash across a small screen and listening to a well-modulated voice explaining the nuances of infant care. The screen is not part of a television set and the voice does not come from a tape recorder. Although the machine she is watching is small and portable, it is something new: an Audio-Vance Study Mate made by Singer's education division.

For years the nursing staff and pediatricians have personally demonstrated the care of the newborn. Each mother is instructed in breast or bottle feeding, formula preparation, bathing, dressing, etc. She is also made aware of the characteristics of the newborn which include general appearance, habits, and symptoms of illness. Although person-to-person instruction is still of primary importance at Tobey, this teaching is now reinforced by the Study Mate.

At any time during her hospital stay a mother and, if she wishes, her husband may request use of the Study Mate in her room. There, they can watch picture after picture of all aspects of baby care, flipping back to study what is important or moving ahead to a new topic.

To date, Tobey's new mothers have been enthusiastic about this audiovisual instruction. Mothers with other children at home are also pleased to have a refresher course in infant care given so simply.

FALL MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTION ENDS OCTOBER 15

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey states that although one-half of the Fall Inspection Period has elapsed, only one-third of registered motor vehicles has been inspected.

The Registrar urges owners of uninspected motor vehicles and trailers to visit any of the 4200 official inspection stations now and have their vehicles inspected. This will prevent long lines of waiting as the end of the inspection period approaches. Immediate inspection will also give the owner enough time to have a rejected motor vehicle or trailer repaired to meet the statutory equipment requirements.

The Fall Inspection Period ends October 15 and all motor vehicles must display the current yellow inspection sticker thereafter.

Registrar Mackey also reminds us that safe drivers are only as safe as the equipment they drive.

Boston-born Fiedler inherited a rich family background of European musical culture and of Boston Symphony tradition. His Austrian father, Emanuel Fiedler, trained in the Viennese tradition of the Strausses, was a first violinist with the Boston Symphony. His two uncles, Bernhard and Gustav, were also violinists with the orchestra. The young Arthur, after studying violin, piano and conducting at the Royal Academy in Berlin, followed in the many-shored family footsteps and joined the Boston Symphony in 1915. At the age of 20, he was the youngest member of the orchestra.

In 1950 Fiedler was named conductor of the Pops and the full crescendo in the history of the orchestra began. With Fiedler came a fame which startled even the Pops-adoring Bostonians. The new conductor's first aim was to serve the traditions of the Pops, but he added to this tradition a musicianship and showmanship which soon made "Fiedler and the Boston Pops" a household word. Mr. Fiedler neatly states the key to the great success of the Pops under his direction: "A Strauss waltz is as good a thing of its kind as a Beethoven symphony. It's nice to eat a chunk of beef, but you want a slice of light dessert too."

Down through the years Arthur Fiedler himself has established one of the most distinguished careers in the business. In his appearances on radio and as guest conductor in concert halls, he has been heard by a greater audience than any other conductor on earth. He has conducted 69 of this country's symphony orchestras in-

DUFF PLUMBING ANNOUNCES

We have added another truck to our fleet expressly for the Marion, Wareham & Rochester area residents. We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it is new customers we are looking for.

cluding all the major ones. He has conducted the leading orchestras of 19 foreign countries. His tenure itself is without parallel in the annals of American orchestras. Conducting his 46th season of Pops this year, he has surpassed the record previously held by Frederick Stock, who served as conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra from 1905 until his death in 1942.

Commenting on the Pops concert with its unique local interest angle, Dr. Donald E.

Walker, SMU President, says: "We are proud to be able to bring to the people of this region a cultural event of such magnitude. In doing so, we hope that we are fulfilling one of the University's purposes for existing. The University is here not only to serve the students -- its primary function -- but also to serve the surrounding communities by providing them with meaningful activity that otherwise might not be available."

Fiedler fans should call the SMU business office for ticket information.

GALA SEASON OF CULTURAL EVENTS AT SMU

The Cultural Affairs Committee of South-eastern Massachusetts University has prepared a series of events for the 1977-78 season. In keeping with a tradition of bringing to the area unusual programs of the highest quality, this year's line-up is truly exciting, promising rich experiences in professional theater, dance, music, fine arts and literature, all at prices far less than in New York or Boston. Due to the grateful financial support of the Student Fee's Allocation Committee of SMU, the events are available at nominal cost to the general public and free to all SMU students. It is hoped that, as in the past, students and general public will continue to support this series of cultural events, the only major program of its kind and quality in southeastern Massachusetts.

The series opened in late September with the annual Jazz Festival, uniquely dedicated to the extraordinary achievements and contributions of Black music to the enrichment of our American culture. This year's Festival featured prominent jazz artists who all have at one time or another lived and worked in Massachusetts.

The next event in the year's series was held October 4th when the Cambridge Ensemble mounted their exciting and unusual production of the Oresteia, a classic Greek theater event that brought forth elaborate praise from the Boston critics last year.

On October 27th, British concert pianist Richard Meyrick will appear as part of his tour of the United States. His playing is described as having "superb rich sonorities and genuine sensitivity...thrilling technical wizardry."

Then, on February 4th, the Cantata Singers will perform. They are a mixed chorus of 40 voices directed by John Ferris of Harvard University. They have been described by the Boston Globe as "among the category of American originals". They can be heard on the Sine Qua Non record label.

On March 30th, the unique and quite extraordinary Japanese demon drum group Za-Ondekoza will appear at SMU. This will be an evening of music, puppets, drumming and dance, a costumed pageant of Japanese folk arts featuring the world's largest drum. What is remarkable about this group, besides their acclaimed performances, is that they are all trained for marathon running and will take the opportunity of their visit to Massachusetts to run in the Boston Marathon. Last year they performed under Seiji Ozawa and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Reviews all over the world, from Boston to London, speak of an evening of dazzling, exhilarating, powerful, thundering, overwhelming music and theater. Perfect for children and adults alike.

A truly fortunate opportunity to see the world's greatest and most acclaimed gymnast dance-group presents itself on April 4th. Returning to SMU after three years and a rise to international fame will be the Pilobolus Dance Co. Their recent one-hour special on TV brought offers for an appearance on the Johnny Carson show and two offers by major Hollywood studios to appear in films going into production this Fall. Apparently, as they did with Frank Zappa, they will reject these offers. They are so heavily booked for world tours next year, that their only appearance in all of New England will be at SMU. Rave critical acclaim has catapulted Pilobolus to greater prominence than any other dance group in the world for their gymnast dance movement is unique and breathtaking.

Coming under the sponsorship of the Cultural Affairs Committee are three chamber concerts being presented by the Friends of Music: October 29 - cellist James Kreger; April 8 - The Ariel Ensemble; May 13 - The Emerson String Quartet.

Also sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee is a poetry series and a gallery lecture series to be announced during the

Here, then, is a celebration of cultural events for all people that will liven the arts scene in southeastern Massachusetts considerably.

SMU is indeed proud to be able to offer this rich sampling to students and public alike. Further details on each event will appear in the press and on radio during the year as they occur.

Mattapoisett Grange

Regular meetings of Mattapoisett Grange will be resumed with a meeting Thursday, October 20th, in the Grange Hall with the Worthy Master, Dennis Sylvia, presiding.

Members and officers of Acushnet Grange will be present to help fill the chairs and present a fine program in charge of the Acushnet Grange Lecturer Andrew Lafferty.

Diane Perry has been given a box of assorted packaged seeds to be given out to the Grange members present. They are 1976 seeds but in good condition for planting and were donated by the Big 3 store.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

The American Red Cross is an Emergency oriented agency chartered by and responsible to Congress and is unparalleled among humanitarian organization in this country. In addition to our many Community Volunteer Programs, Blood Donor Programs, and Disaster Relief Programs, your local Red Cross Chapter also serves Veterans, Servicemen, and their Dependents.

There aren't many families in this country who do not have a member on Active Duty or a Veteran of Military Service. Working through our network of more than 3,000 local chapters, the Red Cross has assisted thousands of veterans, active duty servicemen, and their dependents with their various problems. Some of the services we offer to Veterans and their Dependents are:

1. Assistance in the preparation and development of applications for Federal and State benefits and information concerning benefits availability.

2. Counseling in personal and family problems which may include referral to other agencies.

3. Limited financial assistance when warranted.
